"Hot Stuff!"

"THAT'S hot stuff!" says the city editor when he gets a good news tip.

"That's hot stuff!" says the first-nighter when he sees a good revue.

"That's hot stuff!" says the husband when he eats certain foods for dinner.

And what is it? It would be hard to translate into other languages, but we Americans know it is something we want more of.

On the table, for a breezy 2nd day, a good hot creamed corn, made of canned corn cream-style, or succotash cooked with a little pork, or hot lima beans with lots of butter is hot stuff! Were you ever lucky enough to be invited to a dinner in a Pennsylvanian Dutch home? Then, what did you think of that hot corn soup, yellow with butter, in which float those little rubbed-by-hand dumplings called rivvies? Or, did you ever eat corn fritters somewhere in Dixie—golden brown, crusty affaire bursting open to reveal their tender corn interiors?

An American Dish

Maybe we're nationally prejudiced, because corn is a sort of stars-and-stripes specialty. An Englishman, for example, who has written a book about food thinks our beloved corn-on-the-cob is not so hot. He says "Boiled green maize served with butter has an unpleasant, sickly taste, though it is a favorite dish in America." But we happen to know there is a secret about preparing corn, just as the Englishman knows there is a secret about good mutton chops, and the Frenchman is the sole authority on onion soup. And we're tempted to send over a can of whole kernel corn to this writer and see if he won't agree that it's "jolly well hot stuff."

For Roosevelt

Jovett Shouse, former Democrat campaign leader announced this morning that he will give his support to the party nominee, Franklin D. Roosevelt and John N. Garner in the coming campaign.

VERA

Vera, July 6.—Guests in the home of Mrs. W. J. Woolton July 4th were: Miss Mildred, Pauline and James Andrew Wooton, Jr., of Richmond; Floyd Dowdy and sister, Elsie, and children, Kathleen and Floyd, and Mrs. Nettie Raffedee, of Lynchburg.

The Rev. Omah Burnett preached a fine sermon at New Hope Baptist church on Sunday last, to a large crowd.

Mrs. Burr Abbitt and children, of Newport News, are spending several days at Vera.

Farmers in this neighborhood are busy getting ready for wheat threshing. Mr. Walter Morris, of Buckingham is in this neighborhood with his machine.

C. F. Perrow has a fine crop of corn on the Kenny farm, near Vera.

Buckingham won both morning and afternoon baseball games July 4 from Schuyler at Dillwyn Lake. Large crowds saw both games.

CHILDRESS.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son and brother, Johnny J. Childress, who died two years ago, June 30.

Remembrance is a golden chain, death tries to break, But all in vain.
To have to love, and then to part,
Is the greatest sorrow of our heart.
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
And through the years, many or few—
They are filled with remembrance, dear Johnny, of you.
How we miss you, the world will never know
If tears and heartaches could bring you back—
You would have been back long ago.
